

History Department Learning Journey

Co-op Academy Walkden

Britain: Health and the people: c1000 to the present day

Elizabethan England, c1568–1603

Paper 2: Shaping the nation
Section A: Thematic studies and Section B: British depth studies including the historic environment

11

Conflict and tension between East and West, 1945–1972

Germany, 1890–1945: Democracy and dictatorship

Paper 1: Understanding the modern world
Section A: Period studies and Section B: Wider world depth studies

10

How did Europe go to war in 1914?

How did different people experience the First World War?

Was the world truly at peace after 1918?

How can personal stories help us to understand genocide in the 20th century?

What can oral histories tell us about life in the 1980s?

How did political ideologies affect people's lives in Britain and the world in the 20th century?

9

How did 1917 shape the postwar world?
Can protest lead to real change?

How was the Second World War experienced across the world?

'Disastrous and terrible' or the 'dawn of liberty'?

What was Britain's role in the enslavement of African people?

How did migration affect the world after 1945?

How has the 21st century been moulded by global events?

Was T.J.'s description of Britain as a "world turned upside down" an accurate description of the impact of the civil war?

How did the role of empires, trade and revolutions transform Britain and the rest of the world between 1492 – 1918?

How did Britain's rapid growth affect its empire and the rest of the world?

Can ideas lead to revolution?

What was the British Empire?

How did civilisations flourish in Africa during the medieval period?

Why did the Plantagenet monarchs struggle to rule England in the medieval period?

What do sources reveal about the lives of Black Tudors?

How did invasion, trade, and religion affect people's lives in Britain and the wider world before c1000-1517?

What motivated European Knights to go on Crusades: God, greed or glory?

How far did the Silk Roads shape the world?

What was the impact of the Reformation?

The journey begins to learn about ordinary people, empires, religion, invasion, and power throughout history!

7

Which sources reveal the most about medieval peasants?

How far did the Normans transform England and the wider world?

What is History?

History Department Learning Journey

Co-op Academy Walkden

Britain: Health and the people: c1000 to the present day

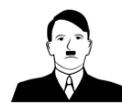

Elizabethan England, c1568–1603

Paper 2: Shaping the nation
Section A: Thematic studies and Section B: British depth studies including the historic environment

11

Conflict and tension between East and West, 1945–1972

Germany, 1890–1945: Democracy and dictatorship

Paper 1: Understanding the modern world
Section A: Period studies and Section B: Wider world depth studies

10

How did different people experience the First World War?

Is 'The Interwar Period' a helpful term for describing the period 1918–39?

What did decolonisation mean in the 1950s?

How effective has terrorism been since 1969?

How did Europe go to war in 1914?

How did political ideologies affect people's lives in Britain and the world in the 20th century?

9

Can protest lead to real change?

How did 1917 shape the postwar world?

'Disastrous and terrible' or the 'dawn of liberty'?

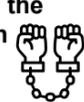

How should we write the history of the Holocaust?

What can oral histories tell us about life in the 1980s?

What was Britain's role in the enslavement of African people?

Was T.J.'s description of Britain as a "world turned upside down" an accurate description of the impact of the civil war?

How did the role of empires, trade and revolutions transform Britain and the rest of the world 1492 – 1918?

How did Britain's rapid growth affect its empire and the rest of the world?

Can ideas lead to revolution?

What was the British Empire?

8

Why did monarchs struggle to rule England in the medieval period?

What motivated European Knights to go on Crusades: God, greed or glory?

How did the people of Elizabethan England view the Africans who arrived on British shores?

How did invasion, trade, and religion affect people's lives in Britain and the wider world before c1000-1603?

How did civilisations flourish in Africa during the medieval period?

How far did the Normans transform England?

How did a German monk transform Europe?

The journey begins to learn about ordinary people, empires, religion, invasion, and power throughout history!

7

Which sources reveal the most about medieval peasants?

What travelled along the Silk Roads?

